

Fletz-Musik: String music from the Upper Palatinate

“Fletz” is an old German word for hallway, that is the connection between the rooms in a House. In our musical “Fletz” we practice and experiment: Connecting old and new, traditional and modern, existing and our own ideas to rooms of sound between the strings.

Our group consists of Ulrike Märkl-Richter (harp), Markus Märkl (dulcimers) and Ulli Schmutzer (double bass). We perform at concerts, readings, openings, parties and events.

Our Programs:

- “Zweierlei”: A reading of traditional Upper Palatinate and Bohemian legends with spherical music
- Fairytale evenings with the award-winning narrator Elfriede Grazis and magical world music
- European Advent: Music for Christmas
- Neugirg reads: A concert-cabaret reading with Norbert Neugirg
- “Multicolor”: Film music from LaStrada to Twilight multimedia-based with pictures from the films
